

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

For more information contact:

Tanner Clark

602-281-3872

tclark@central.com

www.vitaflex.com

Vita Flex Victory Team Member Caroline Roffman Honored With Invitation to Compete With Sagacious HF at Aachen 2013

Wellington, FL (May 28, 2013) . Vita Flex, a leading supplier of advanced performance products for horses, is proud of their Victory Team member Caroline Roffman for earning the honor of being invited to compete at Aachen this summer with Sagacious HF. She is the first American dressage rider to be invited to compete in the Under 25 Grand Prix division at Aachen, and will make history in that class with Sagacious HF. She is excited about her plans to travel to Europe with Sagacious and her own mare, Her Highness O to train and compete in the prestigious European tours. "I am proud and excited to test my mettle in the European arena, and to be the first American to compete in the Under 25 Grand Prix," said Roffman. "I will also compete Her Highness O in the small tour at various European CDI competitions including Aachen," Roffman announced.

Roffman has clearly demonstrated the caliber of dressage riding found in the US. With titles to her name such as 2011 Young Adult "Brentina Cup" winner, 2012 USEF Dressage Festival of Champions National Intermediaire I title, and winner of the US Developing Horse Prix St. Georges Dressage Championship last summer at Lamplight, she is able to travel abroad with the experience of a seasoned rider well beyond her years. The two horses she is taking on the journey are equally impressive.

Sagacious HF, a 1999 KWPN (Welt Hit II x Judity x Cocktail) gelding owned by Hyperion Farms, Inc., came to Roffman in 2012, and the successful team has been riding into the ribbons ever since. Most recently, the pair scored above a 78% during of the 2013 Adequan Global Dressage Festival at the Dressage national 3 in the Young Rider Grand Prix.

Roffman is also planning to take her small tour mare, Her Highness O, on the journey. Roffman and this beautiful black mare, totally ruled many of the shows during the 2013 Winter Equestrian Festival as well, including winning a Team Gold and Individual Bronze at the CDIO Nations Cup in Wellington.

Vita Flex® Brand Manager, Tanner Clark explains that as a VitaFlex Victory Team Member, Roffman has firsthand experience of the benefits of Vita Flex® line of supplements, including Lactanase® and Equinyli . We are proud to have Caroline on the Victory Team, and to be a part of her winning regimen of nutritional supplements,+Clark describes. When horses are competing at the international level, the rigors of travel, training and showing can take a major toll. All of Vita Flex® supplements are designed to address specific issues found in performance horses, and we are thrilled to support Caroline and her horses as they compete overseas.+

The Vita Flex Victory Team is comprised of many world-class riders from all disciplines, including dressage riders, Adrienne Lyle and Lisa Wilcox, jumper riders, Lauren Hough, Todd Minikus and Patty Stovel, eventer Jan Byyny, and reiners Bob Avila and Al Dunning. Members of the Vita Flex Victory Team rely on Vita Flex® products and are proud to represent the company. Vita Flex Nutrition offers animal health supplements, antioxidants, electrolytes, joint supplements, performance products, topicals and vitamins and minerals. Vita Flex® products are researched and tested by equine nutritionists and veterinarians and have been relied upon for more than two decades by owners, trainers and top riders.

For more information about Vita Flex Nutrition products, visit their website at www.vitaflex.com or call (800) 848-2359.

Equinyli, Lactanase, and Vita Flex are registered trademarks of Farnam Companies, Inc.

-30-

Photo: Vita Flex Victory Team Member Caroline Roffman will be the first American dressage rider to compete in the Under 25 Grand Prix at Aachen. (Photo courtesy of Vita Flex. Smaller image sized for social media)